

The course is based on the students planning, building and testing an autonomous LEGO SUMO wrestling -robot. Due to Covid-19 restrictions the challenge were the student let their robots compete in a wrestling tournament had to be cancelled. Otherwise the course was given with lectures and presentations on site as usual.

All students that participated actively passed the course. The drop-out rate is due to students not showing up for the course.