

The actual content of the course corresponded well with the course information and stated learning outcomes

17 responses

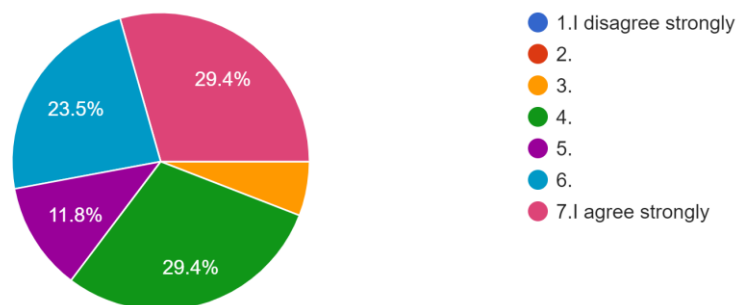

The quality of this course met my expectations

17 responses

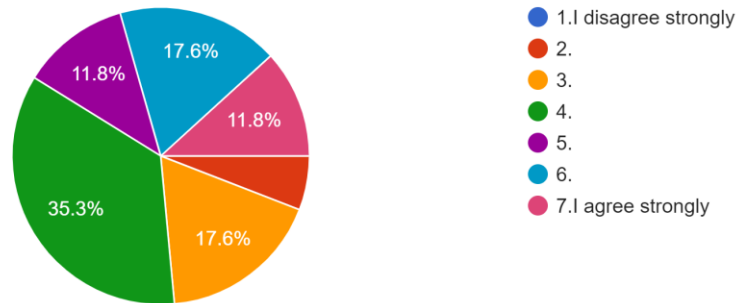

This course has contributed to a significant increase in my knowledge of environmental and climate issues

17 responses

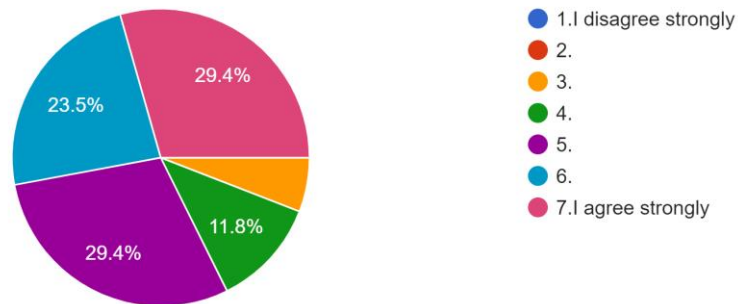

I am more satisfied with this course than the average of other courses at the Royal Institute of Technology

17 responses

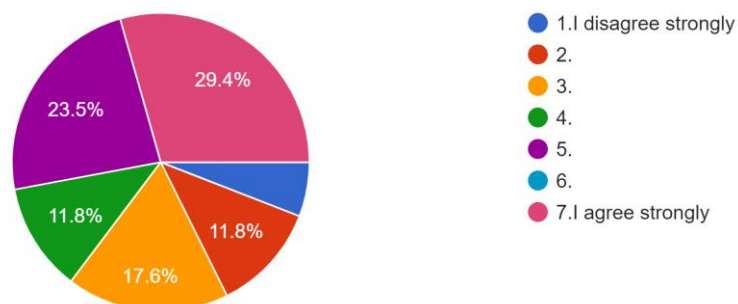

The compulsory literature of the course was relevant to the subject studied.

17 responses

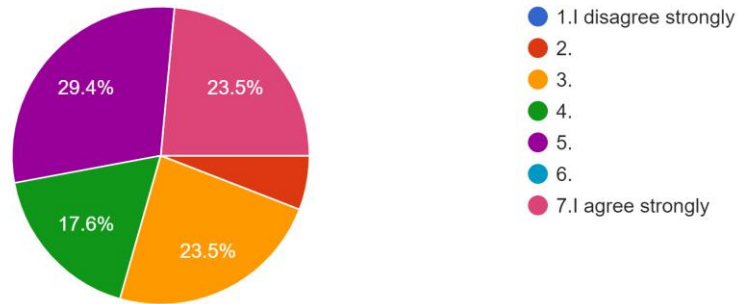

The amount of compulsory course literature was well balanced (not too little, not too much)

17 responses

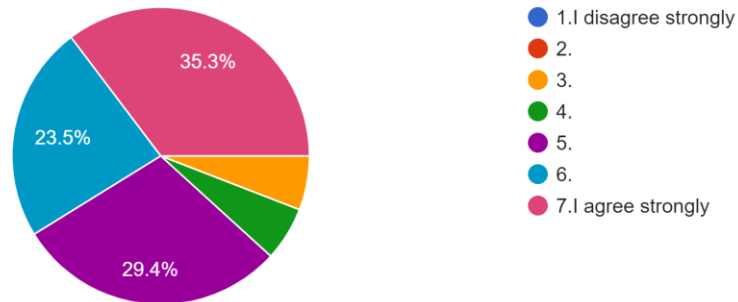

The lectures and lecture slides were useful and facilitated my learning.

17 responses

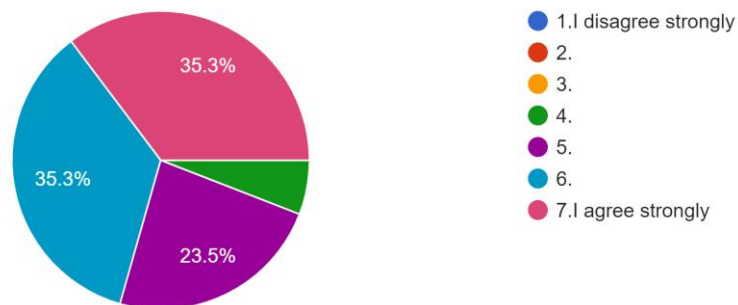

The lecturers offered the students the opportunity for engagement and active participation, individually and in groups.

17 responses

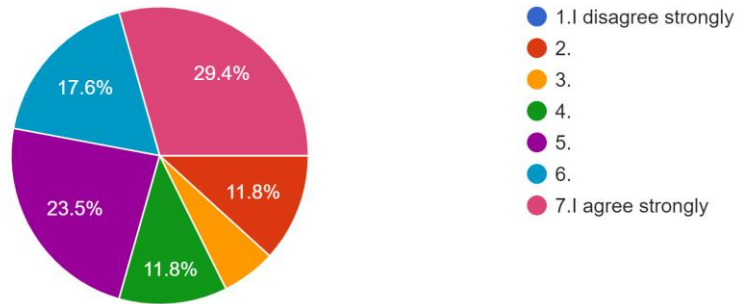

Project/Term paper part of the course is useful and facilitated my learning.

17 responses

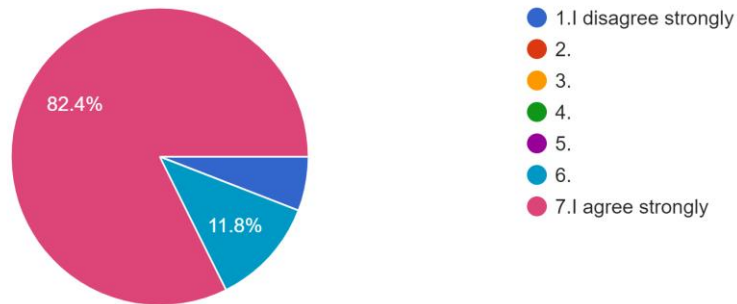

Hans Lööf's lectures were of good quality and facilitated my learning.

17 responses

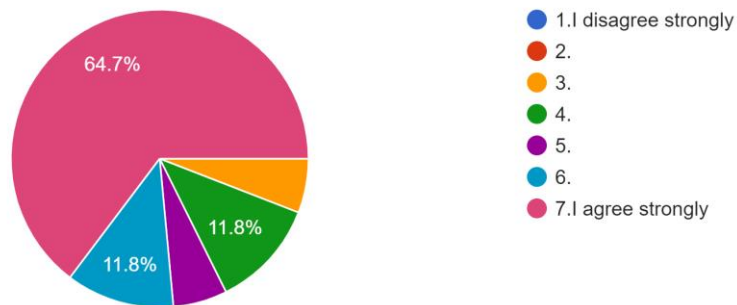

Hans Lööf was available and responsive to the students

17 responses

The course has increased my interest of green economics

17 responses

I would recommend this course to other students
17 responses

